Teens invited to share their insights at the Ceres Library's Teen Think Tank program

As the school year kicks off for local teens, the Ceres Library will host a Teen Think Tank to give participants a forum in which to share their ideas for their local library.

The Think Tank program will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 11 at 3:30 p.m. Teens are invited to drop in, socialize, and discuss their ideas for library programs directly with the new Ceres Library supervisor. Refreshments will be provided.

"The think tank is a time for the teens to meet me, tell me what kinds of activities they're interested in, and let us know how we can best support them throughout the school year," said Megan Mizuno, Ceres Library supervisor.

The Ceres Library is located at 2250 Magnolia Street. For more information, please contact Megan Mizuno at 209-537-8938. Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the "Events and Classes" tab.
