February Events at the Denair Library

Children, teens and adults are invited to enjoy free programs at the Denair Library this February, beginning with a butterfly craft day on Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 3 p.m. Children can pick from a variety of different premade craft kits to make butterflies.

Adults are invited to relax with an afternoon of coloring on Saturday, Feb. 4 from 1 to 4 p.m. All supplies will be provided.

Two teen crafts will be offered this month, beginning with a Perler beads craft on Tuesday, Feb. 7 at 3 p.m. When heat is applied, these colorful beads fuse together, preserving the crafters' designs. On Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 3 p.m. teens can spend the afternoon making friendship bracelets.

Children ages 9 and up can take part in this month's STEAM* Challenge on Wednesday, Feb. 15 at 3 p.m. (*Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, Math) Participants will make galaxy slime out of everyday items. Advance registration is required, as space is limited. Please call (209) 634-1283 to sign up.

Saturday, Feb. 25 at 1 p.m. is Pigeon Day at the library. Participants can enjoy a story and craft featuring Mo Willem's Pigeon. Children who visit the library throughout the day and find the library's hidden Pigeon will receive a prize.

Adult Coloring and Pigeon Day are sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library. The Denair Library is located at 4801 Kersey Road in Denair. For more information about programs at the Denair Library, please contact the Denair Library Branch Supervisor, Karina Mendoza, at (209) 634-1283.
