September Events at the Denair Library

The Denair Library will host free crafts and activities for all ages this month, beginning with “As Seen on Pinterest: Coloring for Adults” on Thursday, Sept. 10 at 1 p.m. Coloring has been shown to reduce stress and spark creativity. The library will provide participants with coloring pages and colored pencils. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

The Friends of the Denair Library will host their annual Used Book Sale on Saturday, Sept. 12 at 11 a.m. Shoppers will find a variety of used books at bargain prices.

Teens can take part in a button maker craft on Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 3 p.m. Crafters may bring their own pictures to turn into unique buttons, or choose from magazine images.

On Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 3 p.m. children can celebrate the first day of autumn with a leaf painting craft. Participants will make leaf paintings using stencils. This craft is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

Adults can celebrate National Coupon Month with a Coupon Exchange on Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 12 p.m. Participants are invited to bring any coupons they don't need to exchange with others.

The library will host an informal book club for kids on Wednesday, Sept. 30 at 4 p.m. Children are invited to bring a book they have read to discuss with a group of their peers. The Kids' Book Club is designed for children in grades 4 through 8. Snacks will be provided. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

The Denair Library is located at 4801 Kersey Road in Denair. For more information, please contact the Denair Library at (209) 634-1283.
