Family Programs at the Modesto Library

This June the Modesto Library will offer a number of free programs, beginning with several LEGO programs for children, teens, and families. On June 10 and 29 at 3:30 p.m., and June 24 at 1:30 p.m., participants will have the opportunity to build LEGO displays for the library. Duplo blocks will be available for children under the age of four, however they must have direct parental supervision.

Children, tweens and teens are invited to Giant Game Day on Wednesday, June 17 at 3:30 p.m. Guests can play giant versions of Jenga, bowling, dominos and more. Participants can also test their coordination with the library's collection of stacking cups.

Science-a-palooza will take place on Saturday, June 6 from 1 – 2:30 p.m. Children, tweens and teens can enjoy as science comes alive through crafts and experiments.

Minecraft Mania will take over the Children's Room June 8 – 13. Participants are invited to drop by the library throughout the week to add to the Periodic Table of Minecraft, test their Minecraft knowledge, or chat with other Minecrafters.

The library will host the All-Teens Craft Fair on Saturday, June 20 on the 16th St. side of the library portico. Teens ages 13-18 will sell handmade crafts from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Shoppers are invited to help support local teens as they showcase their crafting talents while learning about sales, customer service and money management.

Super Movie Saturday will take place on June 20 at 1 p.m. Audiences will watch as Professor Charles Xavier and his "men" attempt to change the past in order to save the future for humans and mutants alike. Popcorn and juice will be available. This movie is rated PG-13 and may not be suitable for all audiences.

The Modesto Library is located at 1500 I St. in Modesto. Free parking is available in the parking lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. For more information, please contact the Modesto Library's Children and Teen Department at (209) 558-7810.
