October Events at the Oakdale Library

Visit the Oakdale Library this October for free crafts and activities for children and teens!

On October 15, join the Oakdale Library and Mayor Pat Paul for the "Mayor's Book Club," a special Story Time event. At 10:30 a.m. the mayor will read a fun story to children and their families.

Teen gamers are invited to the library on October 20 for an afternoon of Wii gaming, starting at 3:30 p.m. Teens will learn teamwork and strategy while competing in interactive games on the library's Wii.

Find creative uses for duct tape on October 23 at 3:30 p.m. Teens can use the library's duct tape to make a number of fun and unique crafts.

The Oakdale Library is located at 151 S. First Avenue in Oakdale. For more information, please call (209) 847-4204.
