June Events at the Riverbank Library

The Riverbank Library will offer free crafts and activities for tweens, teens and adults, beginning with an afternoon of button making and Wii games on Wednesday, June 17 at 2 p.m. Teens and tweens are invited to bring images from home to customize their buttons, including photographs and magazine images. The library will also provide recycled magazines from which participants may select images, as well as craft supplies for creating original button designs. Teens and tweens can put their strategy and teamwork skills to the test on the library's Nintendo Wii console. Participants can also enjoy a superhero bean bag toss and light refreshments. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

Adults and teens are invited to participate in a special jewelry making craft on Saturday, June 20 at 2 p.m. Crafters will learn how to turn hardware into unique pieces of jewelry. All supplies will be provided by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will meet on Tuesday, June 23 at 4 p.m. to discuss The Sweet Hereafter by Russell Banks. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.
