Modesto Library to host Senior Awareness Day

Senior Awareness Day will be held at the Modesto Library on Thursday, June 8 from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Community members are invited to visit booths along the library's portico to learn about free resources available to senior citizens. Representatives from organizations and programs such as HICAP, Howard Training Center, and others will be on hand to answer questions and help with enrollment into programs. Light refreshments will be served, and participants can enjoy a free prize drawing. Senior Awareness Day is sponsored by Stanislaus County Department of Aging and Veterans Services, HICAP, and the Friends of the Modesto Library.

The Modesto Library is located at 1500 I St. in Modesto. Free parking is available in the parking lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. For more information, please contact the Modesto Library Reference Department at (209) 558-7814.
