

STANISLAUS COUNTY LIBRARY

Vanessa Czopek
County Library Director

1500 I Street, Modesto, CA 95354
209-558-7801 Fax: 209-529-4779
www.stanislauslibrary.org

PRESS RELEASE

October 9, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

For more information, contact:
Lauren Hall, 558-7817

Teen Read Week at the Stanislaus County Library

The Stanislaus County Library invites all teens to celebrate the joy of reading by participating in Teen Read Week Saturday, Oct. 13 through Saturday, Oct. 20. This year’s theme is “It Came From the Library” and several libraries will be holding events, such as poster making programs and movie marathons, throughout the week.

Teen Read Week programs at the Stanislaus County Library are:

- Denair Library Tuesday, Oct. 16, 3 p.m.
Teens can celebrate Teen Read Week by making personalized buttons during a button maker craft!
- Empire LibraryThursday, Oct. 18, 3 p.m.
Teens can come to the Empire Library dressed as their favorite character, play games, and make a fun craft.
- Hughson LibraryWednesday, Oct. 17, 3:30 p.m.
Celebrate Teen Read Week by creating a movie poster from your favorite book. Make it at home and bring it in to the library between Oct.14-20 or make it at the library on Oct. 17 at 3:30 p.m. with markers, pencils, magazine cut-outs, or whatever your imagination desires. All posters need to be on 11 x 17” paper and will be displayed in the teen area of the library.

—MORE—

- Keyes Library Tuesday, Oct. 16, 3 p.m. & Thursday, Oct. 18, 4 p.m.
Teens can celebrate Teen Read Week by making personalized buttons during a button maker craft on Tuesday, Oct. 16 then participate in a fun game night on Thursday, Oct. 18. Teens will have the opportunity to learn tactics and teamwork while playing fun games on the Wii.
- Modesto Library Wednesday, Oct. 17, 3:30 p.m.
Teens age 12-18 can wear their favorite cosplay outfit to the Modesto Library and discuss anime, Japan, and more!
- Oakdale Library Monday, Oct. 15, 3 p.m.
Learn tactics and teamwork while playing fun games on the Wii! While teens are at the library they can also peruse and check out the books on display.
- Riverbank Library Wednesday, Oct. 17, 3:30 p.m.
Teens can celebrate Teen Read Week by making their own books using various art materials such as, paint, markers, colored pencils, old books, and magazines. Teens can also bring their favorite photos to personalize their books.
- Salida Library Saturday, Oct. 13 – Saturday, Oct. 20
Teens age 12 – 18 can create an 11 x 17” poster of their favorite book or movie between Oct. 13 and 20 and bring it to the library to be displayed in the Teen Section. Then stop by for a movie marathon on Saturday, Oct. 20 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The library will be showing “Ghostbusters,” “The Goonies,” and “Beetlejuice.”

Participating in Teen Read Week provides teens with the opportunity to interact with their peers, be creative with various crafts, and learn about the wonderful programs the Stanislaus County Library offers.

For more information, please call your local Stanislaus County Library or the Modesto Library Outreach Department at 558-7817.

#