Author Extravaganza

September is the month for authors at the library! Two events will be held during the month that will focus on the people who write the books we love.

On Saturday, September 18 from 12-2:30 p.m. at the Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library local published authors will gather for "Behind the Story: Author Thoughts." At this event authors will discuss how and what they write. There will also be an opportunity for the audience to ask questions. In addition, attendees can purchase books and have them signed by the authors.

Then on Thursday, September 23 at 7 p.m. at the Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library, Anne Fortier, author of the recently published novel "Juliet," will be taking part in Stanislaus County Library Foundation's Author Spotlight. "Juliet" is a modern day story of a woman looking into her past and finding strong connections to Romeo and Juliet, the basis of the play written by Shakespeare. Fortier's book has garnered great reviews and both the author and book are sure to please.

Free Estate Planning Seminars

In these free seminars, offered by the Stanislaus County Library Foundation, you'll learn how to pass your estate to your heirs with the least expense, taxes, hassles and delays.

Seminars will be presented by Attorney Judy Jensen. Call 558-7801 to reserve your seat.

Young entrepreneurs needed

Applications are now being accepted for the popular All Kids Craft Fair. This annual event will be held Saturday, October 9, but applications will be accepted Wednesday, September 1 through Thursday, September 30. Applications are available at all thirteen county library locations or the library's website: www.stanislauslibrary.org

Crafters ages 7 to 14 can participate in this fun event. They will learn about sales, customer service and business. All items must be priced at $5 or less and must be made and sold by kids.

For more information, please call 558-7810.

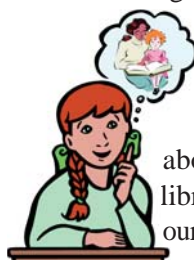

Read to a Dog

The library's popular "Read to a Dog" program is back at the Modesto Library. Children up to 12 years old can read to a certified therapy dog in 15-minute sessions. Reading to a dog offers children the opportunity to practice reading aloud in a non-intimidating environment.

Sessions will be offered September 9 through October 28 on Thursdays 3:30-5:30 p.m. This program is free, but registration is required. For more information or to sign up, call 558-7810.

JobNow!

The library has a new program called JobNow, which is funded by a Library Services and Technology Act grant, administered through the State Library. It's an online job prep/coaching program with live assistance for résumés, interviewing, job searching and skills development. This program is available through the library web site, www.stanislauslibrary.org, with a library card. The library, Stanislaus Literacy Center and Alliance Worknet are all working together to offer this service.
