Summer Reading Performers

In celebration of Summer Reading, Stanislaus County Libraries will offer free shows for children and their families. This month, Randel McGee and his dragon puppet

Groark will visit a number of Stanislaus County Library branches to entertain audiences with the hilarious antics of the mischievous Groark. McGee's performance will combine high-energy stand-up comedy, witty banter, original songs, and hilarious storytelling.

Families are also invited to enjoy the handblown bubbles of Sterling Johnson, the BubbLesmith. Participants will learn about many of the amazing things that can be done with bubbles.

For information about locations, dates and times, please see the inside calendar.

Turlock Fire Dept. @ the Library

Children and families are invited to visit the Turlock Library on Thursday, June 16 at 10 a.m. for a special appearance by the Turlock Fire Department. The fire-fighters will share a story, discuss fire safety, and allow families to get an up-close look at the fire truck. This program will be held on the lawn outside the library. Parents are invited to bring their cameras to take pictures at the event. A regular Preschool Story Time will be held inside the library at 11 a.m.

Popcorn Games

Popcorn isn't just for the movies! The Hughson Library will host popcorn based competitions on Wednesday, June 29 from 1 to 3 p.m. Children can play popcorn ping pong, and make popcorn art. There will also be a popcorn relay and a popcorn toss.
