Library camp extravaganza taking place at the Hughson Library

The Hughson Library will bring the fun of camp inside the library this August.

Children are invited to spend an afternoon “camping” at the Hughson Library on Thursday, Aug. 9 from 1 to 5 p.m. The event will offer participants an opportunity to enjoy many classic camp activities from the cool comfort of their local library.

The library’s “camp” will feature tents for reading and relaxing, s’mores, and a faux campfire around which children can gather and sing camp songs. Children can also enjoy making stick stars, paper moons, and paper bag bears. All materials will be provided, while supplies last.

“Our camp program is an opportunity for family engagement and helps develop literacy skills through fun activities,” said Heather Bailey, Hughson Library supervisor.

This end of summer program is free for children of all ages. Participants are welcome to drop in to enjoy the program throughout the afternoon.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library supervisor, Heather Bailey, at 209-883-2293. Information on regularly recurring library programs can be found on the library’s website, www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
