January Events at the Ceres Library

The Ceres Library will offer free programs for children, teens and adults this January, beginning with Wee Move and Play on Tuesdays at 11 a.m. and Wednesdays, Jan. 4 and 18 at 11:30 a.m. This program features unstructured playtime for toddlers and preschoolers, during which they can enjoy movement and sensory play.

The library will host a LEGO Day on Thursday, Jan. 5 at 3:30 p.m. Children will have the opportunity to build LEGO creations that will then be displayed in the library. Participants under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

Children are invited to "STEAM* Activity: Marble Run" on Thursday, Jan. 12 at 3:30 p.m. (*Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Math). Participants will build towers and ramps, then drop marbles into their structures. This program is recommended for ages 5 and up.

Children ages 4 and up can create unique pieces of art on Thursday, Jan. 19 at 3:30 p.m. Crafters will use spin art machines to drop paint onto spinning paper.

The Ceres Library Book Club will meet on Wednesday, Jan. 25 at 11:30 a.m. This month, the book club will discuss Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande.

Children and teens can practice their weaving skills with a weaving mat art activity on Thursday, Jan. 26 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will use precut paper critters and paper strips to weave colorful works of art.

The Ceres Library is located at 2250 Magnolia St. in Ceres. For more information about Ceres Library programs, please contact the Ceres Library Branch Supervisor, Anne-Marie Montgomery, at (209) 537-8938.
