October Events at the Denair Library

Community members are invited to take part in free programs at the Denair Library this month, beginning with the Bookend Overhaul program for teens. Throughout the month, participants can stop by the library to create book themed bookends for the library's Teen Space. This craft is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

As Seen on Pinterest will take place on Thursday, Oct. 8 at 1 p.m. This month participants will make glittered pumpkins. Participants do not need to be familiar with Pinterest to enjoy this program.

Children can enjoy a Goosebumps Spooktacular on Tuesday, Oct. 13 at 4 p.m., with activities inspired by the Goosebumps book series, such as making "Monster Blood" (green slime) and Grool monster puppets from R.L. Stine's It Came from Beneath the Sink. The Goosebumps Spooktacular is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

Teens can celebrate Teen Read Week Oct. 20 – 24. The library will offer a different "Guess the Book in the Jar" contest and fandom based quiz each day of the week. Those who guess the book or correctly answer the questions on the quiz can win prizes. Teen Read Week is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.

On Thursday, Oct. 22 at 4 p.m. attorney Julie Richardson will review the basics of estate planning. Richardson will cover the documents needed in estate planning, as well as other important issues to consider.

The library will host an informal book club for kids on Wednesday, Oct. 28 at 4 p.m. Children are invited to bring a book they have read to discuss with a group of their peers. The Kids' Book Club is designed for children in grades 4 through 8. Snacks will be provided. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Denair Library.
