August Events at the Empire Library

The Empire Library will offer free crafts and activities this August, beginning with a giant matching card memory game on Thursday, Aug. 3 at 3:30 p.m. Prizes will be given for the most matches found. This game is designed for children ages 4 to 12, but children of all ages are welcome to participate.

All ages can prepare to go back to school with a craft on Thursday, Aug. 10 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will learn how to make pencil pouches for their binders using colorfully patterned duct tape and ziplock bags.

The library will host a LEGO day on Thursday, Aug. 17 at 3:30 p.m. Finished LEGO creations will be displayed in the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

Children of all ages are invited to make ice cream in a bag on Thursday, Aug. 24 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will make their own vanilla ice cream, while supplies last. Children 4 and under are welcome to participate, but must have direct parental supervision.

Children will decorate and construct their own CD spinners on Thursday, Aug. 31 at 3:30 p.m. Recycled CDs and craft supplies will be provided. Children under the age of four must have direct parental supervision.

The Empire Library is located at 18 South Abbie in Empire. For more information about Empire Library programs, please contact the Empire Library Branch Supervisor, Grace Habiger, at (209) 524-5505.
