FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April Events at the Hughson Library

The Hughson Library will offer a free guessing game this April, in addition to free programs for children and teens. From April 2 through 30, community members are invited to guess how many books are in the Hughson Library's collection. The closest guess will win a book from the Friends of the Hughson Library book sale and a gift card for pizza.

Children can build LEGO displays for the library on Tuesday, April 5 at 3 p.m. Puzzles will also be available for participants to enjoy. Children under the age of 4 are welcome to participate, but must have direct parental supervision.

The library will host a rainy day craft for children on Wednesday, April 6 at 3 p.m. Crafters can make their own pet clouds and rainsticks.

Children and teens can make Tie-Dye bookmarks on Thursday, April 14 at 3 p.m. Participants will use Sharpies to decorate the bookmark and create a tie-dye effect.

On Tuesday, April 19 at 3 p.m. the library will celebrate Día de los niños/ Día de los libros, or Day of the Child/Day of the Book. Children can enjoy a special bilingual Story Time and STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) activity. Each child will receive a commemorative activity book and a free new book provided through the Stanislaus READS! initiative.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information about programs at the Hughson Library, please contact the Hughson Library Branch Supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
