April Events at the Hughson Library

All ages are invited to take part in free events at the Hughson Library this April, beginning with a performance by Act!vated Story Theatre on Thursday, April 5 at 1 p.m. The Goza family will perform two multicultural folktales full of physical comedy, music, song, dance, American Sign Language, and audience participation.

Ages 4 to 14 can enjoy the “Plant a Seed, Pull a Weed: Beginning Gardening for Children” program on Tuesday, April 10 at 3 p.m. Participants will learn basic gardening skills while planting starter sunflowers and lettuce. Caterpillar and snail crafts will be available for children under 4. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

On Wednesday, April 11 the library will celebrate Día de los niños/ Día de los libros, or Day of the Child/Day of the Book, from 4 to 6 p.m. Children can enjoy a special bilingual Story Time, crafts, and activities. This year’s theme is “Wild About Books.” Each child will receive a free book while supplies last, courtesy of the Friends of the Library.

Children are invited to a bunny hop on Thursday, April 12 at 3 p.m. Participants can make fluffy bunnies using washcloths, or cotton ball bunny masks. Children can also enjoy a round of carrot toss. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

Children can celebrate the springtime with a kite craft on Tuesday, April 17 at 3 p.m. Crafters will have an opportunity to create and fly their own paper kites.

All ages can take part in an easy bird feeder craft on Wednesday, April 25 at 3 p.m. Crafters will learn how to make bird feeders out of oranges and birdseed.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library supervisor, Heather Bailey, at 209-883-2293.
