October Events at the Hughson Library

The Hughson Library will offer a selection of colorful crafts and seasonal activities during the month of October. Mark your calendar for these free programs.

Celebrate Teen Read Week at the Hughson Library from October 14 to 18 with the Book in a Jar program. Teens will have the opportunity to guess the name of the deconstructed book in the jar! This fun program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

Enjoy a Perler Bead craft on October 14. Teens can create brightly colored designs using pegboards and colorful beads which fuse together when heated. Create designs for key chains, coasters, or just for fun! The crafting begins at 3 p.m.

Teens can design and press their own buttons on October 15 at 3 p.m. Participants are invited to bring their own photos or artwork to turn into decorative buttons.

Celebrate Teen Read Week with a craft on October 16 at 3 p.m. Teens will be guided through the process of creating their very own dream boards.

Craft a baby monster on October 22 at 3 p.m. Children will learn how to create pocket-sized monsters that can be carried everywhere they go!

Get creative with LEGOs on October 28 at 3 p.m. Participants will have the opportunity to build LEGO displays for the library. All ages are welcome to participate, however children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

MORE

Get ready for Halloween with a fun, spooky craft on October 29 at 3 p.m. Crafters are invited to create bats and spiders, the perfect Halloween decorations!

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third Street. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library at (209) 883-2293.
