Modesto Library to provide an introduction to finding grants

Community members new to the field of grant-seeking can find guidance at the Modesto Library

Individuals new to seeking grants for nonprofits will benefit from the “Introduction to Finding Grants” program on Thursday, Aug. 9. The program will be held in the Modesto Library auditorium from 1 to 3 p.m.

The program will give insight into who funds nonprofits and why, and what funders are looking for in nonprofits seeking grants. Participants will learn how to find and identify potential funders, how to make the first approach, and more.

“Introduction to Finding Grants” is offered free of charge. However, space is limited to 20 people. Interested parties should call the Modesto Library Reference Department at 209-558-7814 to reserve a seat or for more information.

The Modesto Library is located at 1500 I St. Free parking is available in the parking lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. Information on regularly occurring programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
