If you are looking for family fun and awesome entertainment then a visit to the Modesto Library is a must! Families visiting the library in the month of February can enjoy exciting crafts and activities and even attend a magical Ventriloquist show!

The month begins with Mo Willems Week, honoring the author of such popular children's titles as "Pigeon Finds a Hot Dog" and "Knuffle Bunny: A Cautionary Tale." Children can search for the pigeon in the Children's Department and win a prize! There will also be a special activity at 4:30 p.m. every day during Mo Willems Week. This program will run from Feb. 3 to 8.

Families can attend a free scrapbooking program on Saturday, Feb. 1 and Saturday Feb. 22 at 12:30 p.m. Local scrapbooker, Anna Soto, will discuss the art of scrapbooking. Some materials will be available but participants are encouraged to bring their own materials and photos.
