March Events at the Oakdale Library

This month at the Oakdale Library people of all ages will find fun and informative programs. Mark your calendars to experience all that the Oakdale Library has to offer.

Beginning on March 12 and continuing on March 13 and 15, the Friends of the Oakdale Library will hold a used book sale. Stop by the Oakdale Library to find great books at great prices! The hours for the sale are as follows:

Wednesday, March 12, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Thursday, March 13, 10 a.m.-7 p.m.

Saturday, March 15, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

If you are looking for a unique children's craft, visit the Oakdale Library on March 13. Starting at 3:30 p.m. children can learn to make a flat glass marble magnet.

For a fun Story Time treat, mark your calendar for "The Mayor's Book Club" on March 19. Join Oakdale Mayor Pat Paul for a reading of a special story. The Mayor's Book Club begins at 10:30 a.m.

Teens can participate in Wii Game Day on March 24 at 3:30 p.m. Teens can learn tactics and strategy while playing Wii games.

The Oakdale Library's Snuggles Project Day on March 29 is a wonderful opportunity to help local shelter animals. From 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. participants will learn to make security blankets for shelter animals in the community. These security blankets can be made by crocheting, knitting, sewing, or even tying fabric. To participate in this special project day, please bring your own supplies and join the fun.
