May Events at the Riverbank Library

This May, community members are invited to enjoy free programs at the Riverbank Library, beginning with the Mayor's Book Club on Monday, May 4 at 11 a.m. Mayor Richard O'Brien will read to preschool age children and their families following Story Time.

All ages are invited to make Flower Cards on Wednesday, May 6 at 3:30 p.m. Colorful paper and craft supplies will be provided for crafters by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

Children can attend the Crazy 8's Math Club on Thursdays at 3 p.m. during the month of May. The Crazy 8's Math program offers children the opportunity to learn about math in a fun, engaging environment. On May 7 children can launch marshmallows across the room and measure how far they go. Zip Line Zoo will take place May 14. Children will build a zip line for their stuffed animals and measure how far and how fast they can fly across the room. Children can learn about probability on May 21 by playing with the library's bouncy dice.

The "Litter Bug Story Time" will be held on Monday, May 11 at 11 a.m. Guest reader Janice McClendon will lead an interactive Story Time designed to empower children to protect the environment.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will meet on Tuesday, May 26 at 4 p.m. to discuss In the Lake of the Woods by Tim O'Brien. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.

The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe Street in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library at (209) 869-7008.
