September Events at the Riverbank Library

The Riverbank Library will offer free programs for all ages this September, beginning with the Mayor's Book Club on Monday, Sept. 14 at 11 a.m. Mayor Richard O'Brien will read a story to preschool age children and their families at the library following Story Time.

Children and teens are invited to learn Origami, the Japanese art of folding paper, on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will learn several designs. This craft program is sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

On Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 4 p.m. the Riverbank Library Book Club will meet to discuss Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet by Jamie Ford. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.

Teens can enjoy a duct tape craft on Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 3:30 p.m. The library will provide a selection of colorful duct tape for participants to use. Books on duct tape crafts will be on display and available for checkout.

The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library at (209) 869-7008.
