There will also be a time coming up where help will be needed to price books. Hopefully we can move the month because our inventory is small as we await the move.

BY-LAWS COMMITTEE REPORT: Dieter and Pat

With the book sale and illnesses nothing has been done yet. According to the bylaws a review needs to be done one month before the June meeting. - The Total money received from our book sale is $5,280.60 gross. 2009 Total was $4,272.15 . We are very excited
- Hanna mentioned that Peggy, Sandy and Susan held a follow - up meeting to discuss what went well and where we can improve.
- The Modesto Friends of the library were at our sale to observe how we operate our sale. They will be having their sale on May 1st and did take some of our remaining books in addition to Salida.

- We had the help of four Teen Challenge men for the unloading and loading of the books.
- Peggy had kept a map of the table set up from last year and the entire set up took one hour quicker than last year.
- On Thursday, there were at least 15 people helping in placing the books onto tables. It was noted that the videos were not in good order.
- Book dealers came from as far away as Salt Lake City and Nevada City. There were about a dozen dealers. It was noted that the dealers were very rude and the board needs to consider: 1. not to advertise on the internet 2. Before the doors open give a lecture on etiquette 3. Obtain VIP's in uniform to supervise (VIP volunteer). It was brought up to have a sign posted in several locations about expectations of customers. This will be brought up at a follow up meeting for the committee with a tentative date in March to be set.
- Sandy asked how many red coupons were turned in when books bought. She had passed out 10 or more and only 3 or 4 were used. The red coupons entitled the holder to $5.00 off at the book sale. There were only 3 trips at the most per vehicle. 29 pallets total were delivered.
- Sandy mentioned the new sorting date of April 6th - 9th (Tues - Fri) from 9 to 11am. volunteers will be needed.
- We need to have better organization during clean -up. Last year there were over 100 boxes still full on Saturday afternoon but this year we only had 35 full boxes on Saturday afternoon.
- Everyone gave Hanna and the committee a hand for their job well done.
- The secretary at the church (Lori Oxsen) has written a book and gave the friends 4 books which we have for sale at $15.00 each.

LIBRARY BOOK STORE : Faye Gibbs
